

European cohesion for local businesses

Side event

When: 21/10/2020 - 11:00 - 12:30 Brussels Time / 12:00-13:30 Bucharest Time

Organiser: Bucharest-Ilfov Regional Development Agency

Virtual venue: Bucharest, Romania

In these uncertain times, The Bucharest-Ilfov Regional Development Agency (ADRBI) invites you to join this session for a discussion on future funding opportunities in Romania, including for SMEs in Bucharest-Ilfov Region. ADRBI will be a managing authority for the next Regional Operational Programme 2021-27 in Bucharest-Ilfov and plans to prioritise also SMEs, research, innovation and digitalisation domains. We invite representatives of European institutions, regional practitioners, and SMEs from Bucharest-Ilfov Region to understand this better.

https://europa.eu/regions-and-cities/programme/side-events_en?page=2

Agenda

- Moderator Owen Brown, Project Officer EURADA

Esteban Pelayo , Director, European Association of Development Agencies (EURADA)	Welcome speech
Aida Liha Matejcek , Head of Unit Romania, DG REGIO, European Commission	The new Cohesion Policy
Dan Nicula , General Manager, Bucharest-Ilfov Regional Development Agency (ADRBI)	“Funding opportunities for SMEs in Bucharest-Ilfov region 2021-2027”
Iulia Mihail , Director Romanian Office for Science and Technology (ROSTeu)	“Business opportunities in research and innovation”
Bogdan Livezeanu , Counselor, Development Programs Management Department within Ilfov County Council	“Digitalization in Ilfov County: better services to citizens and businesses”
Mădălin Ioniță , Executive Director Măgurele Science Park Association	“MSP - Invest now, Innovate today, Built the future”
Cristian Ormindean , Europe Network Centre within ADRBI	“SMEs innovation, business development and internationalization processes support using EU Open Data Portal”
Claudiu Zamfir , Senior Editor, Startupcafe.ro	“Grants for Romanian SMEs: Opportunities and difficulties”